AROUND THE TOWN

Geo. Sing Way has had an addition put on to his store on Osler street.

M. Weber is putting on a big addition to his residence south of the flour mills.

Ray Pearson left on Monday night for Los Angeles, Cal., to join his mother and father.

Miss Flossie Colvin came up on Monday from Calgary for a short visit with her mother and sisters.

Mr. Norman Weicker went to Edmonton on Thursday last with a car of dressed beef, veal, and mutton.

Master Corny Hiebert came up from college at Calgary on Friday and spent the week end with his parents.

Miss Hannah Shantz, who is nursing in the Calgary general hospital, paid a flying visit to her parents on Monday.

A young son of Mr. Clyde Tier died last week at his parents home. Mrs. Tier accompanied the body to the States for burial.

W. M. McIntyre has been appointed forest ranger by the Dominion government. Mr. McIntyre will likely make Banff his headquarters.

Miss A. Erickson of Belligham, Wash., arrived here on Thursday on a visit to her sister, Mrs. W. Oakes, who has been very sick for some weeks past.

Walter Smith, who had the misfortune to cut his foot with an axe a few weeks ago, is now able to get around on crutches although the foot is still very sore.

Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Wilse returned from their visit to California on Tuesday. Mr. Wilse is feeling quite a lot better but is still suffering with rheumatism.

The Bishop of Calgary hopes to be in Didsbury for Easter. Two services will be held in the English church, morning and evening. Further particulars next week.

Tommy Stark leaves on Thursday for Hot Springs, Ark., where he will take the hot baths for a short time before taking up baseball playing with his old club in Winona, Minn.

The public of Didsbury and district will learn with regret that Mr. E. Finkle, who has held the position of C. P. R. agent here for some years, has been transferred to Innisfail, and leaves in about two weeks to take up his new duties. His many friends here will wish him every success wherever he may go.

Mr. J. P. Conrad, who has been manager of the Golden West Hotel for some months past, leaves for Calgary at the end of the week where he will reside. He will be greatly missed by the sport loving public of the town as he has always done his utmost to further good sport, not only by his money and cup donations, which have been large, but by assisting in many other ways all forms of good sport.

Mr. C. Hiebert brought his new International auto up from Calgary on Saturday. The car is quite different to any other that is owned around town. It has high wheels with solid rubber tires which overcomes the great tire expense of the other cars. It is an easy riding car and develops a speed of twenty-five miles an hour. There is only one lever to throw it into high, low and intermediate gears, which makes it much easier to drive. Altogether built and one that should find great favor with those who wish a medium priced car with strength and durability.

Why Do Children Like Zam-Buk?

A Chat with Mothers

"Whenever my children have any sore places, cuts, or skin troubles, we use Zam-Buk. They can always depend upon it doing what is needed."

So says Mrs. A. Lee, of 17 Chat-ham Street, Montreal, writing from the West Coast of Africa, says: "One boy who was treated for a bad case of acne, came back recently and said: 'The green medicine was Zam-Buk.'

Now why should children, all the world over, show such a marked preference for Zam-Buk?

Children like Zam-Buk because, as soon as applied to a burn, a cut, or a sore, it stops the pain and then gradually heals the sore, leaving no scar.

As soon as applied to a sore, it relieves a child so quickly from its play and leaves Zam-Buk to finish off the healing.

Mother might look a little more deeply into the action of Zam-Buk. First, it is highly antiseptic. As soon as applied it stops all danger of tetanus, diphtheria, and other dangerous infection. Second, it is soothing. It cools the wound or sore; allays the irritation; stops the pain and smarting. Thirdly, it stimulates the new cells, beneath the injured part, to healthy action, and creates the speedy creation of new healthy tissue.

Just try Zam-Buk for cuts, burns, or cold sores, insect ulcers, rashes, bad leg piles, varicose ulcers, or any inflamed or disordered condition of the skin. It will work quickly, safely, and inexpensively. All druggists and salesmen, free or from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, for price. Refuse harmful imitations and cheap, worthless substitutes.

He was a newspaper publisher and lay ill. The doctor came, put his ear to his throat, and said, "Your dear sir, is that your circulation is bad?" "Circulation bad, Doctor?" shrieked the man as he shot upright in his bed. "Why, Sir, I have the largest circulation in the State."

"Some adjectives," said the teacher, "are made from nouns, such as dangerous, full of danger; and hazardous, full of hazard. Can any boy give me another example?"

"Yes, Sir," replied the fat boy at once, "dangerous, power, deadly."

Scratched Until I Tore The Flesh

"It was in the latter end of the year 1905 that a nasty itch came through my skin and I scratched it until it bled. I had tried every ointment to no effect. I went to a skin hospital. They advised me to take a laxative. I did not. I refused. I could not sleep with the continual itch. It was that way until one day I saw a paper in the papers a case like mine, but I gave it no notice. I did not care to go to the Cuticura Remedies. One day I went to see them. I didn't get one box of the Ointment more, and one box less. I got a box of the cream, and left no traces after it. I have not had a return of the same since. I always praise the Cuticura Remedies."

Signed, JOHN TYRRELL,
18, Second Road, Liverpool,

In a further letter Mr. Tyrrell adds: "After first appearance of my skin trouble I had to scratch it until I tore and left my nose, legs and arms one mass of sores. It caused sleepless nights, but now I can sleep as well as ever."

Grasping at the Shadow

Many a man has frequently been persuaded or tempted to withdraw from a savings bank the hard earned savings which he has, perhaps, for many years. In his old age, sometimes by a friend who applies to him for a temporary loan, just for a few weeks, the innocent man gives in. His mind being led more frequently is he the victim of the silver tongue, exponent of the art of swindling. Expect some tension, however, that too often does the borrower fail in his probably good intentions, and the lender loses the amount lent, and that in great sum. The result is a loss of credit, a tragic scheme fails to materialize—in grasping at the shadow we lose the substance.

The Canadian Government Amunition is protected against independent men and injurious instruments—it safeguards him against himself. Money paid into the Ammunition Fund is held in trust for any other purpose, but must remain intact for the object for which the payments have been made, otherwise the end comes at never, delay, expense, and cost. The Ammunition Fund, and old age would overtake us unprepared for it, many trials and illustrations.

Further information on the subject may be obtained by applying to the Postmaster, or direct to the Superintendent of Ammunition, Ottawa, where all letters go free of postage.

NEIL FERGUSON.

No Time Limit, But—

The Sunday services at a famous college for young men were conducted by prominent clergymen of many denominations and from many cities. When these visiting preachers occasionally ask the president how long they will be here, he always replies: "There is no limit; sit upon the time you may preach; but there is tradition here that no soul is saved after the first twenty minutes."

A Grand Medicine is the encomium of the surgeon, and when the results from it are considered, as borne out by many cases, it is well deserved. It cures coughs and eradicates colds. It is always at hand and it has no equal as a ready remedy. If you have not tried it do so at once.

Natural Advantages

A few hours after the elaborate Christmas dinner Little Marie was taken to the hospital with a fever. Her bath, who had been unhappy all day on account of Marie's prettier dress, was heard to whisper in an awed voice: "Marie's got the prettiest bath, all right, but I've got the strongest stomach."

Team Work

A man stopped at a country hotel, complained to the landlady the next morning that he had fleas in his room.

"Please?" repeated the landlady indignantly. "I haven't a single flea in my house."

"No," said the man, "I believe that—I'll wager they're all married, with large families."

Husband—"It's a great thing, that accident insurance. I have taken out a policy so far, for instance, $2,500." Wife—"Wouldn't that me nice? Then I could take a trip to the Riviera?"

CURED HIS LAME BACK.

West End, William, Nov. 5th, 1908. "I have been troubled with a lame back for the past twenty years and have used plasters and ointments without effect. At last I tried Gil-Pills, which proved just the thing, and I would highly recommend them to anyone who has a Strained or Lame Back."

H. Harkness, Gil-Pills act directly on the kidneys, relieve the pain, neutralize Aric Acid, which is generally formed when the body is overtaxed. Try Gil-Pills yourself before buying the regular "soo" boxes. Write National Drug & Chemical Co. (Dept. N.U.), Toronto, for free sample.

Guess What Happened

As he sat her in the darkened hall he whispered: "I bring you some roses."

She said: "How cold your nose is!"

SPRING REMINDERS OF RHEUMATISM

RAW, DAMP WEATHER STARTS THE PAIN, BUT THE TROUBLE LIES IN THE BLOOD.

Spring weather is bad for rheumatic sufferers. The change from mild to severe weather, cold, raw, damp, winds bring mildness start the aches and twinges, and in more extreme cases, the tortures of rheumatism.

The most of the time it is not the weather that causes rheumatism—the trouble is rooted in the blood—the rheumatic weather merely starts the pains.

The only way to remove the trouble and to end the pain is through the blood. The poisons rheumatic acids need a certain amount of oxygen to move, and when they are not given enough, the rheumatic sufferer should realize limnetic and outward application may give temporary relief but they never do any real good.

Any doctor will tell you this is true. The sufferer is only wasting time and energy with this sort of treatment, and all the time the trouble is becoming more firmly rooted and harder to cure. There is just one sure cure for rheumatism.

William's Pink Pills. They act directly on the weak, impure and tainted blood. They purify and strengthen it and thus root out the cause of rheumatism.

Here is a bit of proof of thousands of cases that might be given. Mrs. F. X. Boiselle, St. Jerome, Que., says:

"A Grand Medicine is the encomium of the surgeon, and when the results from it are considered, as borne out by many cases, it is well deserved. It cures coughs and eradicates colds. It is always at hand and it has no equal as a ready remedy. If you have not tried it do so at once."

Some suberbians, a few years ago, were playing cards. Owing to two "Naps" being dealt out when a call of "Nap" was made, it was 62 at midnight.

The amount, then, to be doubled, frightened the three players, who, counting, found one would again call, but he had got an absolute "carla."

For so far, not one "Nap" was called. Then, at five minutes to two o'clock, the players agreed to the "kitty" between them if the next deal might be won.

The cards were dealt as follows. The other looked at his five hearts, the king, queen, jack and eight—and, of course, he promptly called "Nap."

"Well, then, I'm going over you!" said the king, and the next minute I was all but helpless and completely disengaged, thinking I would be the last to be rid of me.

At the second play, I had it in five spades, king, queen, jack, and eight—the exact same value as the first.

But, what was more extraordinary still, perhaps, the third man had in hand three diamonds—seven, four, and five—and three clubs—ten and five.

He had a hand of 52.

The Council evidently think that the electric light proposal is one that is too heavy to be undertaken, although no report was made public as to the cost of installing a system. It is to be hoped that they will not let the matter of lighting the town by some system drop, because this is the time of the year to get ready for next winter. There is a feeling amongst a considerable number of ratepayers that a scheme whereby the towns of Innisfail, Bowden, Olds, Didsbury and Carsairs could go into the matter of developing power on the Little Red Deer west of Innisfail for all these towns, and the cost would not be near as great as if each town installed individual plants. This looks feasible and the Didsbury Town Council would be doing a good service by getting into touch with the other towns and finding out what they thought, and if possible arrange a conference of representatives from each town to discuss the matter.

* * *

By the last report of the meeting of the Council they are going to take up the question of a sewage system for the town. This is a much needed improvement, one that has to be faced before very much longer, and it is to be hoped that they will go into the matter thoroughly and leave no stone unturned. We are told that there is a water system in the town which will have to be installed either before or at the same time as a sewage system or the latter will be of no use. This should not be a hindrance to undertake as we have plenty of water at a little distance underground. The cost of these systems may come a little high but the health of the town is of such importance, that we should be willing to spend a little along these lines. These improvements and necessities cannot be paid for out of current year taxes as a great many ratepayers would like to see done, but the town of Didsbury has only a debenture debt of $3,500 (less than any town of its age in Alberta) and a few thousands more for the above purposes spread over a number of years would not make it a very big hardship for the ratepayers considering the many advantages they would receive individually and the town as a whole.

Didsbury a Fine Place to Live

"How did you leave things in the east?" "Will," cried George Hanford as he greeted his brother who with his wife had just arrived in Didsbury from Ontario with the intention of making his home amongst the prosperous and go ahead community. Without waiting for a reply to his question George at once plunged into an account of the town and surrounding country. "I've seen things improve some," he declared, "since I started farming here nine years ago. Now to show you and Gladys the town. Your wife surely is a good looker," said George aside to his brother.

"Come with me and I will show you Stader's store. That is the place where we always trade!" Will Hanford and his brother were delighted with the cleanliness and tidiness of it all. They made many inquiries at the grocery department about a wide range of staples, and found they could get anything they wanted from Stader's stock. Gladys was soon busy at the dry goods department, which she declared enthusiastically to be right up to date. Gladys selected some summer wash goods, white waists and some prints and remarked how low the price was for such nice goods. She didn't think they could be sold so cheaply. In the meantime Will was attracted by one of Campbell's dressy suits and he quickly purchased one. "That's a good buy," commented his brother George. "I've worn those suits for the last eight years." "Say," cried George to a clerk, "While I'm here I'll buy another pair of those Amherst shoes I find they work better than any other I've tried." The party then went up stairs to inspect the display of furniture. Among other articles they bought a dresser and stand for twelve dollars. This looked so well and was so cheap that George also ordered one right away. The new arrivals found no difficulty in procuring at Stader & Co.'s all the house furnishings they needed. Before leaving the store they acted on George's advice and opened an account.

"We will now go around to Curtis's and have a rest and listen to some music, he is always ready to play Edison records and they're fine." Curtis sells all kinds of musical instruments. Bert bought a dandy violin from him. He got outside prices on it and found he could get better value from Curtis than anywhere else."

"O arn't those picture postcards beautiful," cried Gladys, "and what a lot there are." "This," said Will,

"is where I buy some swell chocolates for my sister-in-law." "And I," cried George, "must buy some baseball goods for the boys. And I'll take some of this fruit, it is always fresh here, they guarantee it O.K." The party made a pleasant stay at the store of L. S. Curtis, listening to the music and partaking of ice cream and soda. "Before we go any farther," said George firmly, "Gladys must come to Nixon's and pick out something from his stock as a present from me. Nixon has a fine collection of jewelry. "O aren't those brooches pretty," cried Gladys. "Well, take your pick," said George genially. "I know the price is reasonable. My wife and daughters have found by coming to Nixon's they get just what they want and in the long run it comes cheaper than sending away."

"See Shantz for your lumber" advised George. "I bought from them all the lumber I used on the house I built last fall. They have the stuff in stock and take trouble to look after a man's interests." Will was very particular and knew just what he wanted, but found Shantz & Co. could accommodate him with all he asked for in plain and undressed lumber and other building supplies. "I see they sell coal and wood here," exclaimed Gladys. "Yes," said George, "and they always deliver promptly and the quality is first-class."

"Now for dinner," cried George. "We can get the best meal at the Alexandra hotel. The food is always good and plenty of it. The service just the thing. Everybody at the Alexandra is neat and clean. We always go there for our meals when in town. It is the place where commercial men stay. Mr. McCarney is a newcomer here. He sure runs a good hotel."

"Well, I've seen what implements the others try but I know Masey-Harris have the best," declared George decidedly. "We will go and see Sexsmith, he's the agent here. He knows the business and makes an effort to satisfy a man." "Well this is good, showing off implements," cried Will as they looked over Sexsmith's stock.

"The city meat market is the best place to do business," said George. "It's a new shop. They do the square thing. I always take my stock to them, and that is where we buy our fresh meat. The place is always neat and clean. Your sister-in-law says the sausages and lard she gets from the city meat market is the best she ever bought."

When you buy at home you are an architect of a greater province.

Hail Insurance

The act respecting hail insurance has been amended by the Alberta Provincial Legislature by limiting the amount that may be received for loss by indemnity was $4, $6 and $8, with premiums at 20c., 30c. and 40c. per acre. Now the premium is 25c., and no contract shall be valid or binding where application for insurance is not made and received by the provincial treasurer on or before the first day of July of each year before hail has fallen on the crops insured or any part thereof.

The New Department of the C. N. R.

The new immigration office of the Canadian Northern Railway was opened at 82 Scott Block, Winnipeg, and is described by the city press as already a very busy spot. Mr. Thomas Howell, head of the department, with the experience of several years in immigration work to guide him is conducting a propaganda in Great Britain that has enabled him to secure the finest class of immigrants who have ever come to Canada. The Royal Liver Steamers have their full accomodation taken for all sailings well into the summer. Mr. Hawley of the Winnipeg office, is claiming a large proportion of farm hands and domestics for the west, and if the applications from desiring help are as prompt and in as sufficient numbers as already seems assured, the labor problem will not be such an acute one for this and following seasons. Application forms will be supplied by addressing W. A. Hawley, 52 Scott Block, Winnipeg.

Another story credited to the late Justice Brewer has it that while he was judge in a minor court he was presiding at the trial of a wife's suit for separation. The wife, a rightless woman, spoke to her husband in five years, and Judge Brewer put in a question, "What explanation have you?" he said severely, "for not speaking to your wife in five years?" "Your honor," replied the husband, "I didn't like to interrupt the lady."

J. W. Sexsmith, Greensboro, Pa. has three children, and like most others in the community, is poor. "We have tried several kinds of cough medicine," he says, "but have never found any yet as good as Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. For sale by dealers everywhere.

Concrete Fence Posts Like These are slightly, strong, permanent.

Concrete is, in many localities, cheaper than wood, for fence posts, and more durable than stone, brick or iron. Our book.

What The Farmer Can Do With Concrete Is sent FREE.

It tells how to make, not only fence posts, but walks, curbs, horse blocks, barn foundations, feeding floors, well curbs, drinking troughs, silos, dairies, and many other farm utilities where cleanliness, strength and durability are required.

Many of these things are simple and inexpensive to make, and may easily be put together in

You may send me a copy of "What the Farmer Can Do With Concrete."

Baseball Club Organized

A large and enthusiastic meeting of baseball players and fans was held in sample rooms of the Golden West Hotel on Friday evening last to consider forming a club for the coming season. Those present were confident that a good club could be formed with the material in town, and as it is not likely that Didsbury will have a football club this year chances are that Didsbury will be well represented in any league that may be formed in part of Alberta amongst the smaller towns.

The following officers were elected for the year:

President—J. F. McCarney.
Vice-Pres.—H. E. Osmond.
Sec.—Treas.—H. E. Sands.
Manager—T. W. Cuncannon.
Captain—E. Enveldon.
Finance Comm.—E. E. Topliffe, A. Sheling, F. Hugel, H. E. Sands.
Field Comm.—E. Enveldon, E. Fisher.

Mascot—Year Wood.

A membership fee of $1 will be charged those wishing to join the club, said fee to be paid before members will be allowed on the field.

M. J. P. Conrad of the Golden

West Hotel announced that he would give $25 towards a cup if the other towns which will likely be in the league will donate a like sum for the same purpose, failing this he would give $25 to the club. This generous offer was accepted and on motion by Messrs.

Topliffe and Cuncannon a hearty vote of thanks was tendered Mr. Conrad for his offer as well as for the genous support he has always given in anything that has taken place in Didsbury since his advent amongst us.

Mr. Conrad replied to the vote in a few well chosen words and the meeting adjourned.
